

PLEASURE

By Verna Kwiatkowski. Sky View, the nursing home where I live happily, thankful for my wheelchair. A response to one who unhappily said, "Sky View can't give me pleasure."

Carry pleasure within yourself
And you will be happy anywhere:
In a house, assisted living, or in a
Nursing home in a wheelchair.

Carry pleasure within yourself
And you will never be bored!
Delightful pastimes fill your mind
From the place where they are stored.

Carry pleasure within yourself
And your heart will be content;
No matter what goes on outside,
You consider your time well spent.

Lord, may pleasure be firmly rooted
On the inside of all my friends,
Until we reach our heavenly Home,
Where pleasure never ends!
